

A DISTRICT 15 GRADUATE IS...

WHO CAN...

- Listen effectively for meaning, knowledge, intentions, and beliefs.
- Express thoughts and ideas clearly using oral, written, and nonverbal communication for a range of purposes and audiences.

- Leverage and incorporate others' strengths to build collective commitment and action to enrich learning of both self and others.
- Contribute and elicit diverse perspectives to achieve collective outcomes.

- Consistently improve the quality of one's own thinking by skillfully analyzing, assessing, and reconstructing.
- Apply thinking and solutions that are clear, rational, open-minded, and informed by evidence.

- Value and embrace diverse cultures and unique perspectives through awareness, sensitivity and respect of others' feelings, opinions, and experiences.
- Utilize ethical and empathetic behaviors in their personal, civic, social, local, and global responsibilities.

- Actively participate in their own learning, work through challenges, and approach learning with a growth mindset.
- Approach learning with excitement and positive attitudes despite the potential of difficulty or failure.

- Respond productively to feedback, praise, setbacks, and criticism.
- Demonstrate agility by understanding, negotiating, and balancing diverse views and beliefs to reach solutions.

